OVER THE OCEAN.

Patching the Peace of Europe.
Beaconsfield Bursts a Bomb, And Demands the Withdrawal of Troops.

BEAUCONSFIELD'S DEMANDS.
BERLIN, June 15.—There is but small probability of the admission of the minor states to the Congress. In the Congress yesterday Earl Beaconsfield made a speech on the military situation at Constantinople, and demanded the withdrawal of Russian troops.

DINING WITH THE BRITISH.
The British, Austrian and Russian delegates dined at the British Embassy to-day, and subsequently attended a reception tendered by Prince Bismarck.

FLATTERING THE FRENCH.
LONDON, June 15.—Prince Bismarck's effusive attentions to the French delegates to the Congress is much noticed, and it is universally believed that the Globe's announcement of an Anglo-Russian understanding is authentic. The Times this morning endorses the terms of the agreement as published.

GEN. MARTINEZ CAMPO.
MADRID, June 15.—Gen. Martinez Campo has arrived from Havana, and has met with the wildest enthusiasm from the people.

THE KING OF HANOVER.
BERLIN, June 15.—The Government has permitted the burial of the King of Hanover to take place at Hanover.

ORDERED TO BABELSBURG.
The Emperor's physicians have recommended that he seek a change of air, and he will depart for Babelsburg in a day or

CHOLERA AT MARSEILLES.
PARIS, June 15.—Cholera is prevailing at Marseilles and many deaths have occurred.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Special to the Star.

POTTER COMMITTEE.
WASHINGTON, June 15.—At the afternoon session of the Potter Committee, Orland H.
Brewster, a member of the Louisiana Electoral College in 1876, was examined and identified the returns from that State and his signature on the same.

A letter from Secretary Evarts, addressed to Mr. Potter as Chairman, was presented to the Committee, stating that the request of the Committee for all communications under control of the State Department had been submitted to the President, and upon the latter's direction, to the House of Representatives.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The Potter Committee met at 10:20 this morning.

H. C. Clark was called and sworn, and questioned by Chairman Potter: Was Secretary to Gov. Kellogg; is now employed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue; was Kellogg's Secretary during his whole term of office; was not present at the meeting of the Electoral Commission in 1876; was in New Orleans at that time. It was subsequently stated to the witness, by Anderson, on his return from Washington, that friends in Washington thought the names of the President and Vice President should be on separate papers.
The witness took charge of the original returns, took the copy to the printer, and had the forms changed by taking out the Vice President's name from one and putting it in a separate paper. The names written in the returns were written by one of the clerks in the office. The certificate which Anderson returned, and which he said he opened, the witness took charge of. These documents took place about Christmas.

Gov. Kellogg stated to witness: "I wish you would see General Anderson; he says there is something wrong about these returns." Witness saw Anderson, and got the returns from him. No one was present, witness thinks, but himself when Kellogg signed the corrected returns. Witness then left the certificates for the Electors to come and sign. After they were signed, witness took them and sealed them up. They were at once again dispatched to Washington.

One certificate was mailed, and one was handed to Charles Hill, who was a substitute messenger for Anderson.

Witness caused a duplicate copy of the corrected returns to be filed with the District Court. Did not at that time ask to have the original returns that had been filed there returned. Anderson was duly authorized to bring the first returns, but witness did not prepare the authorization for him to bring the second set.
Kellogg was the first one who signed the corrected returns. After they were signed by Kellogg they were left in an unfrequented room in the State Building for the Electors to sign as they were found, the room being left open.

Witness was shown two packages, and recognized them as the envelopes that contained the first and second sets of returns.
The second was sent by registered mail.
The Governor's certificate accompanying the returns was prepared by witness before the Electoral College met. The electoral returns were prepared by several clerks.

The Committee here took a recess until 1 o'clock p. m., the presence of the members being required in the House Chamber.

Sickness.

National Associated Press to the Star.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—More than a dozen members of Congress, including Senators Blaine and Edmunds, are confined to their homes by illness.

Clintching the Title.

Mr. Burchard's resolution, affirming that President Hayes' title could not be touched by either House of Congress, or by both, was passed in the House yesterday by a vote of 215 to 21.

Mr. Hartridge, of Georgia, then presented the majority report of the Judiciary Committee on the famous Montgomery Blair Resolution. The report was adopted—yeas 234, nays 14.

Our Own Harbor.

The conference managers of both Houses on the River and Harbor Bill have agreed to the item of $50,000 for a harbor of refuge on the Ohio River at Cincinnati.

THE METROPOLIS.

Thought He Was a Turk.
National Associated Press to the Star.

New York, June 15.—John Atkinson, a former resident at Saville, Suffolk County, L. I., who has since February last been afflicted with a mania that he was a Turk, and continually fancied he was fighting Russians, on Sunday evening last stabbed his brother-in-law, John Gordon, with a jack-knife, inflicting wounds from which he died Wednesday night.

Vanderbilt's Fortune.

In the Vanderbilt will contest Ex-Assemblyman and Ex-Alderman James Irving testified. In March, 1868, the Commodore told him in Albany, "Jimmy, when I left the steamship business I was worth $7,000, 000, now I'm worth $100,000,000." Trial adjourned to Tuesday.

A Season of Opera.

A lease for the New York Academy of Music has been signed in London by Mr.
Norton, representing the directors, and Mr.
Mapleson, of London. It is understood that Mapleson will open the Academy for a season with Italian Opera, and about the middle of October with Marie Rosa, Mme.
Connessa, Pissani, Signor Frapelle and other artists of equal reputation and celebrity.

Death of a Valuable Horse.

Charles Green's trotting stallion, Duke of Lexington, valued at $10,000, died at the stables of his owner at Babylon, Long Island, Thursday.

A Train Wrecker.

Lewis Nagle, hailing from Chicago, was arrested at the Erie depot, Jersey City, at noon yesterday on suspicion of being the person who caused the wreck of the Erie train at Goshen a few days ago, by which the engineer and fireman were killed.

FROM WEALTH TO WANT.

The Degradation and Dissipation of an Ex-Mayor's Daughter.

National Associated Press to the Star.

New York, June 15.—Among the victims of alcohol arraigned yesterday in the Municipal Court was a woman with a comely and intelligent face, who answered to the name of Josephine Frail. Her dress was coarse and dirty, and was suggestive of a bed on a coal-heap or in the gutter. She gave the name mentioned to hide her shame from her friends and relatives, who occupy a proud position in industrial and cultured society in New York city.

Her statement, which is confirmed by trustworthy testimony, admits of no question that she is the daughter of Ex-Mayor Wm. F. Havemeyer, and heir to the handsome property left by him at the time of his death, a few months ago. It is known that she led a dissipated and degraded life for the last three or four years. For want of a fine of $3 and costs she was sent to Deer Island.

CANADA.

Dufferin's Successor—Military Controversies—The Quebec Riots.

National Associated Press to the Star.

TORONTO, Ont., June 15.—A special cable to the Globe from London says: "There is the best authority for stating that when Lord Beaconsfield left for Berlin to-day he had been settled about Lord Dufferin's successor, the only two names considered at the Colonial Office having been the Duke of Manchester and Connaught.
The Duke of Manchester, we hear, will not be appointed, and if certain difficulties can be successfully overcome Prince Arthur is not indisposed to assume the office. However, nothing definite has been done."

QUEBEC, June 15.—All quiet and well disposed. Laborers were at work yesterday on the Department Buildings, guarded by two companies of the Quebec Royal Rifles, who are under strict orders to make prisoners or shoot down any persons who may assemble to create a disturbance. The strikers are evidently terrified at the appearance of so many soldiers. Business has been almost entirely suspended during the past three days, and the citizens are most disconsolate.

MONTREAL, June 15.—Col. Martin has received a letter from Captain Culver, of the Barlow Grays, of St. Albans, thanking the different corps for their hospitality on the Queen's birthday. The 6th Fusiliers, from Montreal, will take part in the celebration of July the Fourth.

The inquest over the remains of John Clegg, who committed suicide in St. Lawrence Hall Thursday, resulted in a verdict of death from his own hands, while laboring under a fit of delirium tremens. He was formerly a regular officer in the British service.

QUEBEC, June 15.—The funeral of the man shot by the military Wednesday took place yesterday afternoon. Volunteers were ordered under arms in case of any disturbance, but none occurred.

A CHICAGO PICNIC.

The Socialists Resolve to Parade Under Arms.

National Associated Press to the Star.

CHICAGO, June 15.—The main Section of the Socialistic Labor party had a large and very boisterous meeting last night. The question was whether or not they should arm their procession at the big picnic Sunday next. The English and American members were strongly opposed to going armed, arguing that, while they had a perfect right to do so, it would not be wise, as trouble might occur with the authorities and blood shed. The Germans, Scandinavians and other foreign members, who greatly predominated in numbers, made violent speeches, denouncing the Englishmen as cowards, and saying that if trouble occurred it would not be their fault, but that of those who attempted to interfere.

A motion to turn out in uniform, but without arms, was indignantly voted down, and the members nearly came to blows among themselves so warm was the feeling directed. This action was taken in violation of instructions from the Executive Committee at Cincinnati, that no arms be carried in Sunday parades. In view of this incendiary meeting, and the fact that the police stations will all be supplied with breach-loading arms and the military all armed, the situation looks grave for Sunday. It is difficult to say what the outcome will be, but certainly a very small provocation might occasion great bloodshed.

EASTERN STATES.

Mutiny of Prisoners—Falling of Walls—Recovery of Money—Assaulting of Mr. Vernon Ladies.

National Associated Press to the Star.

St. JOHNSBURG, Vt., June 15.—Thirteen prisoners attempted to break jail yesterday by shaming a fight among themselves.
The High Sheriff knocked one of them down, and quickly quelled the outbreak.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 15.—The building on Exchange street, adjoining Grave's confectionery, the factory that was blown down upon April last, fell with a terrific crash at noon yesterday, burying several people in the ruins. None of the injured are hurt seriously.

BOSTON, June 15.—In March last, it will be remembered, the Lichmore National Bank, at Cambridge, was robbed of some $60,000. Since then the bank officers have been engaged in negotiations which have resulted in the return, through State Detective Wade, of $50,000 of stolen securities.
The detective refuses to divulge where or how he got the plunder.

NEW HAVEN, CT., June 15.—The annual meeting of the yearly Council of Regents of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association was held at Mount Vernon yesterday, with an unusually large attendance. The Association consists of one Regent, and Vice Regents, one from each State in the Union, nearly all of whom were present. General Fitz Hugh Lee, of Virginia, addressed the meeting in a most felicitous manner. A large number of visitors were present, including many distinguished gentlemen from various States. A bountiful entertainment was provided by the ladies.

The Winans' Will.

National Associated Press to the Star.

BALTIMORE, June 15.—The will of Thomas Winans was filed for probate yesterday.
The bequests are as follows: To Mrs. Matilda Farostonski, $20,000; Marie Vandercleet, $30,000; Miss Emily Revillon, $20, 000; Mrs. Adolph Revillon, $10,000 each; Mrs. Betsy Vanderveet, $10,000; Miss Julia Whistler, Miss Neva Whistler, Thomas, Ross and Joseph Whistler, $10,000 each; Clinton Winans, son of Ross Winans, $30,000; Josephine N. Ames, $40,000; Bridget McPhillips, $20,000; Sophia Ames, $20, 000; Col. Osmund Latrobe, son of John H. B.
Latrobe, $25,000; Mrs. Dr. George H. B.
Latrobe, $10,000. All of his household furniture, jewelry, pictures and plate he leaves to his daughter, Celeste Winans. The rest and residue of his estate of every description is left to his children, Celeste and Ross R. Winans, share and share alike. His brothers, William and Walter S. Winans, and his son Ross R. Winans are named as executors without bonds.

A Brooklyn Romance.

National Associated Press to the Star.

BROOKLYN, June 15.—Miss Lulu Prange, a pretty girl of twenty, living with her parents on Fulton avenue, was robbed of her pocket-book yesterday by Theodore Holles, a middle-aged man, who lives on De Kalb avenue. She pursued the thief with her horse and on foot and caught him, but he told her such pitiful tales of his poverty and the sufferings of his family, which were verified subsequently by a visit to his residence, that she gave him half the contents of the pocket-book.

While she was inquiring into the matter, however, an officer arrived, and the object of her benevolence was, against her wishes, carried off to the Station-house, where he was locked up on the charge of highway robbery preferred by a policeman.

An Editor Whipped by a Woman.

National Associated Press to the Star.

MUNCIE, Ind., June 15.—Mrs. Polk, wife of Robert Polk, who lives about three miles from here, publicly horsewhipped Mr. N.
F. Ethall, editor of the Muncie News, yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Polk alleged that Ethall had published matter concerning her of a slanderous nature, so she sent for him to meet her at a shoe-store, where she threw a handful of pepper into his eye and proceeded to whip him with a raw hide. He was severely beaten, and it is feared he will lose his eyesight.

A Triple Execution.

National Associated Press to the Star.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., June 15.—Noah Cherry, Bob Thompson and Harrison Atkinson were hanged here yesterday at 3 o'clock.
A large crowd was in attendance and the execution was conducted in an orderly manner. The men were all dead within 7 minutes after the drop fell.

A Timely Respite.

National Associated Press to the Star.

ANNEVILLE, S. C., June 15.—For the second time Jeff David was yesterday respite again just before the Sheriff slipped him from this terrestrial sphere. His time is extended until July 12th.

A deluded victim of the madstone writes to a Washington paper and asks a suspension of judgment while he proves the magical properties of that geological sucker.

THE PRESIDENT'S TITLE.

Views of the Press.

National Associated Press to the Star.

NEW YORK, June 15.—The Herald says:
"Mr. Burchard, of Illinois, a Republican member, performed the foolish feat of a small politician yesterday by attempting to destroy the effect upon the country of the resolution of the Judiciary Committee. It is pretty conclusive proof that the title of President Hayes will never be seriously questioned in such official circles as have any power to disturb it."

The Times says: "The action of the House effectually disposes of Mr. Montgomery Blair's patent explosive compound, designed to blow open the doors of the White House."

The Tribune says: "It would be interesting to know whether Mr. Potter wishes now that he hadn't."

The World says: "If Conkling desires to Mexicanize the United States Government he must look elsewhere than to the Democratic party for his guerillas."

The Star says: "The validity of Mr.
Hayes' title is now definitely disposed of, so far as any Congressional action is concerned, and with it disappears the revolutionary shibboleth."

The Sun says: Daniel Webster once said of a sort of resolutions which had been adopted by the Whig State Convention:
"The resolutions contain very little meaning, and they were adopted by a set of men who understood but little of what meaning they do contain." With all due respect for the House of Representatives of the United States, we think the same remarks might justly be applied to the resolution adopted by a majority of that august body yesterday. If the resolution means that impeachment for gross cause would be revolutionary, then it is a resolution that the enforcement of the Constitution would be revolutionary.

Briefly Told.

National Associated Press to the Star.

NEW ORLEANS, June 15.—All the Mexican revolutionary parties are broken up except that of Escobedo, who is expected to cross over into Texas to-night.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Mr. Windom to-day called up the resolution extending the time of adjournment to next Thursday, and it was agreed to.

PATERSON, N. J., June 15.—Anson Henick, one of the proprietors of the Paterson Gar-dian, died this morning at the Seven Spring Mountain House, near Monroe, Orange County, New York.

LONDON, June 15.—A dispatch from Rome states that Pope Leo has offered to Emperor William the assistance of the Catholics against the Socialists in the coming elections in Germany for Members of the Reichstag.

Flashes.

John Linderman and his horse were drowned in a pond near Dixon, Iowa.

Terrell was yesterday removed from the Logan, Ohio, jail to the Penitentiary.

A daughter of Jeremiah Featherstone, of Shelbyville, Ind., died of strangulation
